

Palazzo Isolani

Overview

Palazzo Isolani is a fascinating 18th century venue in the heart of Bologna, Piazza Santo Stefano (also known as Piazza delle Sette Chiese), it has for centuries offered its arcades and one of the most enchanting walks in Bologna. The eighteenth-century rooms on the ground floor are richly frescoed. The portraits of Isolani Family and that one of the King of Naples Giacomo Murat, with whom the Isolani were related in the early nineteenth century, give an atmosphere of majestic solemnity to the location, ideal for receptions, weddings, cocktails and gala dinners but also conferences, corporate events, seminars, workshops and press conferences.
